AGENDA SET FOR UM FOUNDATION
BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING THURSDAY, FRIDAY
AT YELLOW BAY ON FLATHEAD LAKE

MISSOULA--

Various University of Montana faculty members will make presentations concerning research activities underway at the university during the semi-annual meeting of the UM Foundation Board of Trustees on Thursday and Friday. The two-day meeting will take place at the UM Biological Station at Yellow Bay on Flathead Lake.

At 11:30 a.m. Thursday, July 25, Dr. John Tibbs, UM associate professor of zoology and director of the Biological Station, will welcome the trustees, give a history of the station and take the group on a tour of the station's facilities. Tibbs will also present a talk entitled "Research and Creative Activity in the Arts and Humanities at UM" at 2:30 p.m.

At 2:40 p.m., two UM faculty members will speak on "Natural Sciences at UM." They are Carl Larson, M.D., director of the Stella Duncan Memorial Research Institute and professor of microbiology, and Dr. Howard Reinhardt, professor of mathematics and chairman of the Faculty Senate.

The final Thursday presentation will be at 3:45 p.m. on "Professional Schools." Speakers will be Dr. Robert McKelvey, UM professor of mathematics, and Maxine C. Johnson, UM associate professor of business administration and director of the Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

At 10 o'clock Friday morning, July 26, there will be a report on "Foreign Programs at UM." Dr. Keith A. McDuffie, UM professor and chairman of the foreign languages department, and Dr. John Van de Wetering, UM professor and chairman of the history department, will make presentations.

At 10:45 a.m., Dr. Joseph Mussulman, UM professor of music, will speak on "Arts and Humanities." Dr. Gordon Browder, UM professor of sociology, will speak on "Social Sciences."

The concluding presentation on Friday afternoon will be at 1:30 by the new UM president, Dr. Richard C. Bowers. Bowers will present a talk entitled "Observations and Hopes of UM."

The UM Foundation was established as a nonprofit organization in 1950 to encourage and develop educational programs and facilities at UM through private contributions and bequests from UM alumni and friends.
